TOMBS JAMMED WITH PRISONERS, A SCANDAL TO CITY

States Prison Commissioner Finds Men Sleeping Two In a Cell and Some On the Floor, While Boys' Section Is Declared Deplorable.

(Special to The Evening World.)

ALBANY, Dec. 9.-The overcrowded condition of the Tombs, in New York City, due to the delays in bringing criminals to trial may result in a legislative investigation. Members of the State Prisons Commission, who have inspected the Tombs or read the reports of the inspectors, pronounce conditions there as disgraceful.

Darkness came on the first day of the six-day bicycle race in Mad son Square Garden with the riders having covered 332 miles, twent miles behind the record established by Elkes and McFarland in 1900, an riding at a furious pace. This is not a fair comparison, however. The rules have been so changed that the distance covered after the bell ha rung does not count in the official score. The riders have lost fifty-fly minutes in this way since the start. They are going at an average d twenty and one-half miles.
